

Soothe

Short Bio: 'Soothe' is the latest soul stirring single from my EP 'Twigs and Sticks'. It's about the raw emotions of a complicated breakup and aim resonate with those who use music to get them through a heartbreak.

Medium Bio: 'Soothe' embodies the raw emotions of heartbreak and the solace found in music. This indie folk gem, with its neo-mellow vibes, resonates deeply with anyone who has navigated the turbulent waters of a complicated breakup. It reflects the duality of wanting to escape but still feeling the need to stay.

Long Bio: Sam Lily's organic and vulnerable lyricism shines through in 'Soothe', capturing the conflicting feelings of wanting to move on yet feeling tethered to past emotions. The song's narrative reflects the duality of wanting to escape the pain yet feeling the need to stay connected to it through music. The music serves both as a reminder of the pain and as a means of alleviating it.
